Two opposites. Too easy to combine.

Being global is what makes us world experts. Being local is what makes us flexible partners. Being both global and local is what makes us unique.

Your Majesty, King of Wines

The Boutari Winery, with a tradition that started 130 years ago in Naoussa, and continued with the production of legendary wines, celebrates today a historical success. Wine Enthusiast, one of the most acknowledged wine magazines internationally, awarded the Boutari Company with the major distinction of European Winery of the Year 2008.

This distinction is of historical significance for the Boutari Company, as it becomes the only Greek winery to have won this award out of only five European wineries that were nominated for this title. Additionally, the highly acclaimed Wine & Spirits magazine awarded the Boutari Company with the distinction International Winery of the Year for the 12th time, thus ranking it among the world’s top eight wineries, with so many distinctions historically. Thus, Konstantine Boutaris’s vision to see the Boutari Company stand amongst the world’s top wineries is now realized.

“These awards make us proud and are an international acknowledgment of the long and hard work of the Boutari Company for the past 130 years. But more than that, they serve as a reminder that our responsibility for a more intense global promotion of the Greek wine is now as big as ever.”
